2	tofranil uk	The issue is not so much the microorganisms that undoubtedly exist in hotels, but rather, the bodily fluids, pests, and other gross things that just aren't cleaned up Is it REALLY being paranoid to use a disposable cup, rather than a drinking glass that was "washed" with a toilet-and-counter cleaning rag glass cleaner? Is it really paranoid to avoid using an UNWASHED bedspread that someone else has slept under, had sex on, and done who-knows-what-else with? Is it REALLY paranoid to check for bed bugs and cockroaches before opening up that suitcase you're going to bring back to your own home? No, it's just plain common sense, unless you're deliberately trying to be extreme about your view of "germs" as your little hotel room friends
